

Video Post-Test

---

 1. Child maltreatment occurs in families of all income levels.

- a) True
- b) False

 2. Bruising anywhere on the body of a child is a likely sign of abuse.

- a) True
- b) False

 3. In the TEN-4 bruising rule, T stands for ____, E stands for ____, N stands for ____.

- a) Torso; Extremities; Neck
- b) Torso; Ear; Neck
- c) Thigh; Ear; Nose

 4. For older children, the main areas of bruising of concern is the ears and neck.

- a) True
- b) False

 5. Ear bruising is quite common.

- a) True
- b) False

 6. Medical professionals can tell when a bruise happened based on its color and size.

- a) True
- b) False

 7. Patterned or linear bruising is usually NOT an indicator that abuse has occurred.

- a) True
- b) False

 8. A common litmus test to determine if a child is being neglected versus poverty issues is if the child's hygiene and clothing are significantly different than the parent's or guardian's hygiene and clothing.

- a) True
- b) False

 9. A report should be made to Child Protective Services when a child tells you he/she was punished.

- a) True
- b) False

 10. Red flags for child abuse include injuries that are:

- a) Multiple
- b) Frequent
- c) Unexplained
- d) All of the above

 11. Children at high-risk of being abused or neglected include those who:

- a) Were drug-affected as an infant
- b) Have siblings placed outside of the home as a result of a previous investigation
- c) Frequently move
- d) None of the above
- e) All of the above

 12. Sex trafficking may include:

- a) A child exploited by a boyfriend or pimp
- b) A child traded for sex by a parent or family member in exchange for drugs
- c) A child engaged in survival sex
- d) A child who is a runaway
- e) All of the above

13. Child protective services must be contacted under the mandatory reporting law when you suspect a child is being exploited by a boyfriend or pimp.

- a) True
- b) False

14. A common indicator of child sexual abuse is when a child displays knowledge or interest in sexual acts that are inappropriate to his or her age.

- a) True
- b) False

15. A child may be experiencing sexual abuse if (s)he:

- a) Engages in persistent play with sexual themes
- b) Has unexplained episodes of anger, rage, or moodiness
- c) Experiences sleep disturbances
- d) All of the above

16. Groups of people more likely to be overlooked in reporting child abuse and neglect include:

- I. Caucasian
- II. Well educated
- III. Low-income families
- IV. Single parent homes

- a) I and II
- b) II and III
- c) III and IV
- d) All of the above

17. When listening to a child who you suspect has been abused or neglected, it's okay to ask specific questions to confirm what you suspect happened and tell the child that you won't tell anyone.

- a) True
- b) False